

Help spread the word about Orange Innovation

Roskilde Festival Orange Innovation is looking for 2 interns to work with communication and event production

Orange Innovation is Roskilde Festival's new innovation unit. We work as a network organisation that invents and taps into projects, which hold the potential to create a social, cultural, artistic or environmental impact on the world we live in. We engage volunteers, join communities and collaborate with organisations and companies that want to play along. By being open and daring to share we hope to learn the unknown and to create the unexpected.

We are now looking for two interns to help us spread the word about Orange Innovation to a broad public through web communication, social media and event production.

Depending on your skills you will work with either:

- Communication: across media platforms: webpage, blog, Facebook, newsletter, Vimeo & Twitter
- Engaging volunteers through internal communication and events
- Video communication

We imagine that you are:

- A student at a relevant higher education
- Passionate about innovation and culture
- Skilled in both written and oral English
- Able to work well both independently and in teams

For communication we are looking for

- A strong web communicator, who is experienced with social media. It is a plus if you are experienced with the Adobe Creative Suite and/or video production

For event production we are looking for:

- A skilled coordinator with experience in cultural event production

Working with us:

At Orange Innovation you become part of an environment where the road from idea to action is short. You will take part in shaping a new and dynamic organisation and become connected to a broad network of people, organisations and companies that work within culture and innovation.

Our office is based both in Roskilde at Roskilde Festival's headquarters and at the Hub in Copenhagen, Nørrebro.

The internship is unpaid. The internships starts on February 15th and runs for a minimum of 3 months.

Interested? Please send your application + CV on January 30th 2013 to Julie Hjort, e-mail: Julie.hjort@roskilde-festival.dk , M: 60957479. Feel free to call or email Julie with questions.
