

The City and the Pragmatic Turn 5-6 November 2015, Copenhagen

Program 5 November 2015: International Conference, Keynotes and speakers (Open to the public; no registration required)

Note: 6 November is closed program for PhD students, invited speakers and commentators. Program will be announced later.

Morning: Keynote speeches

Venue: Annex A, University of Copenhagen, Studiestræde 6, Building 719, Copenhagen K, Denmark

09.30-10.00	Arrival
10.00-10.15	Welcome address
10:15-11:00	Laurent Thévenot (Paris): Engaging with the Certified City
11:00-11:45	Albena Yaneva (Manchester): What is Cosmopolitical Design? Rethinking Cities at the time of the Anthropocene
11:45-12:15	Discussion
12:15-13:30	Lunch in the City (on one's own terms)

Afternoon: Parallel sessions, invited speakers

Venue: Centre for Health and Society (CSS), Øster Farimagsgade 5, Copenhagen K, Denmark

13:30-15:00 Two parallel sessions

1. Architecture, design and planning in the pragmatic turn (CSS 25.01.53)
13:30-14:00	Jørgen Ole Bærenholdt (Roskilde): Assembling experimental places: designing with absences.
14:00-14:30	Mattias Kärrholm (Malmö): Urban design and public life: territorographical notations
14:30-15:00	Anne Tietjen (Copenhagen): Found in translation: Working with actor-network theory in design education
15:00-15:15	Shared/cross-cutting discussion

2. Rethinking urban activism, movements and (cosmo-)politics (CSS 35.01.44)
13:30-14:00	Alberto Corsín Jiménez (Madrid): Free culture and the city
14:00-14:30	Martin Severin Frandsen (Roskilde): Experimental inquiry and organisation of publics – a pragmatist approach to (studying) urban activism
14:30-15:00	Luca Pattaroni (Geneve): Counterculture in the guaranteed city: elements for a political approach to urban assemblage
15:00-15:15	Shared/cross-cutting discussion

15:15-15:45 Coffee Break

15:45-17:30 Two Parallel Sessions

3. Climate, ecology and urban change (CSS 25.01.53)
15:45-16:15	Simon Guy (Lancaster): Catalyst: Art, Sustainability and Place in the work of Wolfgang Weileder
16:15-16:45	Birgitte Hoffman & Jens Stissing (Copenhagen): TBA
16:45-17:15	Anders Blok (Copenhagen): Attachments to the commonplace: Pragmatic sociology and the aesthetic cosmopolitics of eco-house design in Kyoto, Japan
17:15-17:30	Shared/cross-cutting discussion

4. Theorising the city with pragmatisms (CSS 35.01.44)
15:45-16:15	Ole B. Jensen (with Simon Wind and Ditte Bendix Lang) (Aalborg): Mobility and pragmatism – Re-thinking the contemporary city.
16:15-16:45	Christian Borch (Copenhagen): The Urban and Spatial Nature of High-Frequency Trading: On the changing relations between Cities and Financial Markets.
16:45-17:15	Michael Guggenheim (London): Disasters as a cosmopolitical form
17:15-17:30	Shared/cross-cutting discussion