

ART 2030 seeks Project Coordinator to join our team

ART 2030 is a non-profit association working to engage the artworld in the United Nations plan for the future – the Global Goals. We produce art projects, engagement programmes and communication campaigns to inspire action for a sustainable world.

We now welcome applications for a Project Coordinator position that will contribute to the planning and execution of ART 2030 projects.

Tasks will include:

- coordination of future projects
- production of presentation materials for partners and foundations
- communication tasks [SoMe and website – content production and updating]
- research tasks
- administrative duties as required

We value that you:

- have excellent English written skills
- are organised and detail oriented
- are pro-active, positive and open-minded
- are willing to support the daily running of a small secretariat

We offer:

- a chance to be part of a small team with big visions working to engage everyone - through inspiring art projects and outreach activities.
- a position starting as a Virksomhedspraktik, with the intention to establish a Løntilskudsforløb, followed by a permanent position.

Please send a short cover letter with your CV [and recommendations] in a single pdf to info@art2030.org before 5. November 2019.
